Independent Diplomat Communiqué 29 April 2008

Independent Diplomat is recruiting for several positions. Please direct qualified candidates to our website for further details.

New York

Independent Diplomat is looking for an experienced diplomat to serve as ID's representative to the United Nations. This position, based in ID's New York office, will begin in the summer of 2008.

We are seeking a diplomat with UN experience (ideally in New York) and a minimum of 10-15 years total diplomatic experience. The successful candidate will be required to build and maintain a comprehensive network of diplomatic contacts at the UN Secretariat and diplomatic missions, provide information from the UN for other ID staff for ID's projects, prepare diplomatic advice for clients, manage projects and assist with ID's organisational development and fundraising.

For further information, please refer to our website

Please send applications to our New York office by email at newyork@independentdiplomat.org. Deadline for applications is 15 May.

Brussels

In order to meet the increasing demand for our services in the process of EU and NATO accession, we are keen to recruit experienced (including recently retired) diplomats and officials, who have served either with EU and NATO Member States or with the European Commission/NATO Secretariat. We are especially interested in individuals with at least 15 years of diplomatic/official experience who have worked recently on Euro-Atlantic integration, who would be available for a few days a month, or on a full-time basis, to assist with or help manage one or more of our projects.

For further information, please contact our Brussels office by email at nicholas.whyte@independentdiplomat.org.

Internships

We recruit year-round for internships. Currently there are openings for summer 2008 in London and fall 2008 in London, New York, Washington DC and Brussels. Please visit our website and contact our offices directly for further details.
